2005 Focus

Equity Through Access: Part II

November 6-8, 2005
Anaheim Marriott Hotel
Anaheim, California

Sponsored by

California Department of Education

In collaboration with

Northern California Comprehensive Assistance Center at WestEd
Southern California Comprehensive Assistance Center at Los Angeles
County Office of Education

INFORMATION

Purpose

The purpose of this Accountability Institute is to assist local educational agencies (LEAs) in implementing effective programs and accountability systems to improve the achievement of English learners and immigrant students. This institute is part of the California Department of Education's efforts to provide technical assistance to LEAs in implementing Title I and Title III of the No Child Left Behind Act.

Focus

The 2005 institute will extend last year's focus on "Access Through Equity." Sessions in the following areas will provide information and research-based strategies to enhance academic success for English learners and immigrant students in California:

- Ensuring High-Quality English-Language Development and Full Access to Academic Content
- English Learners with Special Needs
- Professional Development Practices
- Systemwide Accountability for Ensuring Student Learning
- Informing Policy and Legislation

Target Audience

The target audience for the institute is superintendents, school board members, administrators, evaluators, and staff involved in implementing state and federal programs for English learners and immigrant students.
